

SCARLETT MINSHULL

scarlettminshull.com |  smminshu@edu.uwaterloo.ca

ID: 20769471

| Geological Engineering, University of Waterloo, 4 month preferred

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Technical Skills	Confidently utilizes Sokkia automatic level for Surveying (20+ hours), and leverages differential GPS, project mapping and engineering detail drawings in AutoCAD (30+ hours) Experienced in developing precise plans for existing conditions, gradings, and demolitions, and designing exact drawings for bioswale, retaining walls, bioretention site, and channel removal. Knowledgeable in creating functional engineering documents (email, business letter, report, technical) Implements excellent Microsoft Office skills (PowerPoint, Excel, Word), proficient in ADOBE
Applicable Skills	Enthusiastic, detail-oriented and shows initiative by setting challenging goals and pursuing new skills and knowledge outside the workplace/classroom Strong multitasking, organizational and time management skills developed from past employment, and participating in leadership activities, competitive athletics and achieving high success in academics Exercises exceptional verbal and written communication in English and French: bilingual D.E.L.F (Diplôme d'études en langue française) certification

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Sept 2018-Present	Course-Related/Field Experience , University of Waterloo Waterloo, Ontario Quickly and accurately performed a field layout for closed traverses and used Excel to effectively balance the data Created a robust Functional Servicing Report, documenting the design of a low impact parking lot Forecasting Analyst, Scarsin Corporation Uxbridge, Ontario
July 2018-August 2018	Refined advanced Excel skills using proprietary software (i2e) to build forecasts for pharmaceutical data Exercised stringent attention to detail when integrating patient, dosage, and compliance data and compared forecasts to understand significance of results Interacted professionally with fellow staff in a dynamic entrepreneurial environment to collaborate on projects and achieve deadlines
August 2015August 2018	Independent Bookseller, Blue Heron Books Uxbridge, Ontario Effectively engaged all demographics of customers/international authors ensuring a high level of satisfaction, optimized store processes, confident in conflict resolution with suppliers Marketed current books and events through creative displays, networking with customers/community members, and timely, intriguing social media posts (Facebook and Instagram)
September 2015Present	Soccer Referee, Uxbridge Soccer Club Uxbridge, Ontario Facilitated safe and respectful play; encouraging sportsmanship among players and spectators Completed Entry Level Referee Course; directed players to abide by FIFA soccer rules and regulations

EDUCATION

2018-2023 Candidate for Bachelor of Applied Science and Engineering, Geological Engineering Co-op, University of Waterloo
An interdisciplinary program incorporating the disciplines of geophysics, water resources and geohazards

LEADERSHIP AND ENRICHMENT

September 2018 Waterloo Warrior Design Team, University of Waterloo
Design and fabricate zero net energy house for Habitat for Humanity

August 2015
September 2018 Duke of Edinburgh Award, Silver Award Recipient, Gold Award Candidate
Set and achieved goals to encourage personal development, sustained skills participation (over 24 months), and community involvement. Achievement includes 200+ hours community service.

June 2016-June 2018 Leadership Committee Co-Chair, Uxbridge Secondary School
Coordinated a committee of 30 students to facilitate Leadership Camp and programming for 150+ high school students. Responsibilities included creating engaging seminars and team-oriented workshops

November 2015-June 2018 Student Delegate: Vimy 100th Anniversary trip: France and Belgium cemeteries/war memorials/museums
Engaged with local veterans and initiated conversations regarding service; highlighted Col. Sam Sharpe through a community Gala, bronze statue unveiling/event, participated in Vimy Oak planting/ceremony

March 2017 Waterloo Unlimited, week-long transdisciplinary enrichment program, advanced problem-solving

2016-2018 Heart and Stroke, community canvasser, volunteer 3 years

2016-2018 Oak Ridges Trail Association member, Great Backyard Bird Count participant

2015, 2016 Youth Summit for Biodiversity and Environmental Leadership Conference, Ontario Nature
Interacted with professionals/youth leaders in workshops to better understand ecosystems

July 2016 Bootcamp for Brains, G(IRLS)20 Initiative
One of 30 girls elected nation-wide to participate in workshops and seminars: The Art of Leadership, Communications, Finance and Personal Branding, networked with industry mentors

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

June 2018 University of Waterloo President's Scholarship, University of Waterloo Engineering Entrance Scholarship
Uxbridge Secondary School: Kinsmen USS 75th Reunion Award (most prestigious graduation bursary, chosen by teachers), K. Freemantle Memorial Award

September 2017-
June 2018 University of Toronto National Book Award - academic achievement and future potential

2010-2018 Founder and player: Uxbridge Secondary School Ultimate Frisbee Team
Founder and Facilitator: Nightlights Teen Book Club

2010-2018 Piano Student: Royal Conservatory (Gr. 7) and original composer, Lions Music Festival performer

PERSONAL INTERESTS

- Dance (Classical and Urban) , soccer, veteran affairs, piano composition, reading, ADOBE, canoeing